JUNIOR S

Alma Mater

Alma Mater, truest Mother
Thou has guided us each day
Thou protecting love has led us
Through the portals of life's way.
Never shall thy precepts leave us
As we journey through life's hall
We will need thy tender mercies
We will heed thine every call.

So, when school days soon are over
In this world we'll take our place
And we'll meet life's undertakings
Better now prepared to face.

So, we thank Thee Alma Mater
For thine Armour wrought with skill
And when life's flame burneth dimly Shelby High, we'll love Thee still.

Junior One Victory Garden

V is for old Shelby's victory garden,
 I is for It's all for us to hoe;
 C is for its carrots that we've planted,
 T for turnips that will make us strong;
 O is for the onions that we'll harvest,
 R is for radish small though it be;
 Y is for the youth we'll put behind it,
 The whole will take us to Victory.

ATHLETICS

The illustration depicts a muscular man in a running pose, emerging from a dark, arched tunnel. He is holding a torch aloft in his right hand. The tunnel's interior is textured with grey stippling, and its arched top is highlighted with a red glow. To the left of the runner, a large, stylized laurel wreath is rendered in blue ink with white highlights. A red banner with a white border cuts across the lower portion of the image, containing the word 'ATHLETICS' in a black, serif, all-caps font. The overall style is reminiscent of early 20th-century graphic design or book cover art.
